

About Us

Dr. Kluane Spake

We are a global apostolic ministry with a mandate to release the GLORY of Christ by imparting present truth and life-changing reformational concepts. We proclaim the fullness of the finished work of redemption to the nations.

Dr. Kluane is a highly sought after conference speaker and learned theologian who walks in the Spirit. This ministry is here to help believers grow up and mature until they are able to realize, enjoy, and activate the things that Jesus died to give.

Through this ministry, thousands and thousands of people have been strengthened and challenged to be all they can be in Christ.

With an absolute stand for righteousness, reformation, and integrity, Dr. Kluane presents a Spirit revealed, relevant gospel message right out of Christ's heart. With great boldness, Dr. Kluane confronts the issues and dilemmas of today's church, providing scholarly insight and solutions.

She is a bold and pioneering voice speaking God's intention, resisting the spirit of religion, and activating the truth and the miraculous presence of the Lord.

Dr. Kluane is also highly anointed with the true gift of healing; innumerable astounding testimonies have resulted from those touched by God through this ministry.

Some of her favorite topics are Melchizedek, Unity, Koininea, the direction of the church, Church Governmnet, The Presence of God, The Third Day Church, Present Truth, and other revelatory topics. Founder of Jubilee Alliance Apostolic Network

Dr. Spake also serves as a consultant and mentor to many leaders and pastors in the body of Christ. She is the founder and director of Jubilee Alliance, an apostolic network of 5-fold ministers (www.jubileealliance.com) which is based on relational peer-level association that provides apostolic mentoring and accountability to churches, leaders and ministries. The purpose of this network is to develop and equip 5-fold ministry leaders around the world with the strategy needed to enable them to give birth to their vision and bring forth the purposes of God. Former Founding Senior Pastor

Dr. Kluane Spake has been in ministry for 25 years. Fourteen of those years she founded and pastored a successful church in Guam. She understands the needs of the LOCAL PASTOR. Since moving from there to Atlanta, Georgia, she travels for ministry world-wide preaching/teaching at local church services, conferences, crusades, and pastor's meetings. Author

Thousands of people have been challenged and changed by her many pioneering books and numerous articles that are widely dispersed on the internet. She also sends out two monthly newsletters, Right-Dividing, and Jubilee Alliance.

As an author, scholar, educator, conference speaker, Bible teacher, and a family person she sows her life into the church in order to better the quality of others. She has a strong educational background with a Masters degree from Trinity Theological Seminary and a Doctorate in the Philosophy of Theology from Vision University. She and her husband Rodell live in Atlanta, Georgia. Hobbies

Being with family and grandchildren; digital art; singing acapella harmony; directing choirs; writing songs; traveling; and design. Kluane (Kloo-ah'nee) is the name of a national park in the Yukon, Canada near Haines Junction. Her dad found Kluane lake while delivering mail by dog team in the arctic in the early days before roads went there in the winter. She and her husband raised their children in Alaska and then moved to Guam for fourteen years. They now live in Atlanta, GA.
